

THE TRIBUNE
THURSDAY MORNING, MAY 19, 1842.

General Committee of Democratic Whig Young Men. An adjourned meeting of the committee will be held at the Broadway House, on FRIDAY EVENING, May 20, at 6 o'clock.

Truth Seeking Out. The leading article in yesterday's Sun bears this title; but the amount of "truth" which it suffers to "leak out," bears no reasonable proportion to its falsehood.

The Arsenal is a large and strong building, with walls three feet thick, and containing 5,000 small arms, besides cannon, ammunition, &c.

Office of the Providence Journal, THURSDAY, P. M. Mr. Dorr remains at the house of Barrington Anthony. The house is guarded by soldiers, and a cannon is placed by the side of it.

It is said that Mr. Dorr offered one of the marshals of his procession any place in the gift of the State, if he would lead the attack on the Arsenal. He declined. Why does not Mr. Dorr lead the attack himself?

Virginia.—The returns are all in. The Senate stands 12 Whigs, 24 Loco-Focos; the House 50 Whigs, 34 Loco-Focos.

We hear that the rum-sellers of the Sixth Ward, whose licenses have just expired, intend to profit by the brilliant example of Ald. Shaler, and hold over. They think this will be less troublesome than to obtain new licenses.

A meeting was held at the Court House in Centreville, Queen Anne's County, Md., a few days since, to pay a tribute of respect to HENRY CLAY on the occasion of his retirement from the public councils of his country.

Mr. Dorr's Constitution allows no colored citizen to exercise the Right of Suffrage, even though he pay the State Taxes. Under this Constitution the same as the State Taxes, under this Constitution the same as the State Taxes, under this Constitution the same as the State Taxes.

Yesterday came across a copy of the Cincinnati Enquirer—a paper with which we do not exchange—from which we were astonished to learn that the story of fifty or sixty prisoners being discharged from the Penitentiary on Blackwell's Island to vote the Loco-Foco ticket is an exploded fabrication.

The Contest Begun! The following is a copy of a letter written at Providence Tuesday evening, just as the cars were leaving:
CARTER ARMORY, PROVIDENCE, R. I.
May 17, 1842. P. M.

DEAR SIR: We are in open rebellion here; an outbreak is expected every moment. I am drafted in the Cadet Company; I shall leave here for New-York to-morrow, if I can. The Suffrage military have just taken possession of the State's cannon; they are now going to take the Arsenal. The crisis has come. We are all in arms. No time to write.

I am at the cars—they are off in a moment. Just before writing this, I was in the private council of Governor King. There is a list of 1,000 men who have pledged themselves to come out at a moment's notice; they are now issuing the orders. The military are coming in from all parts of the State. The Dorr troops are collecting, and in less than 48 hours the question will be settled.

The Arsenal is a large and strong building, with walls three feet thick, and containing 5,000 small arms, besides cannon, ammunition, &c. If the Dorr party has taken it, it is now virtually master of the State. A passenger brings us tidings substantially corroborating the above. The following Extra from the Providence Journal is of an earlier date by some hours:

H. J. Lewis and the Frauds on the Bank of Kentucky. PHILADELPHIA, 17th May, 1842. To the Editor of The Tribune:
SIR: As Mr. H. J. Lewis, late Cashier of the Schuylkill Bank while that institution was the agent of the Bank of Kentucky, at a stipulated salary, is expected soon to return to Philadelphia, it is deemed proper to apprise the public upon what grounds his immunity from arrest has been procured.

For that purpose I inclose you for publication a copy of a letter from the Attorney General of Pennsylvania to the Governor of Kentucky. With the aid of Lewis's testimony, and that of other corroborative witnesses and circumstances, the Bank of Kentucky expects to be able to fix upon the proper parties the responsibility for the atrocious fraud which has been so long enveloped in mystery, and which the State of Kentucky and the private stockholders of the Bank of Kentucky have sustained a loss of some thirteen hundred thousand dollars—($1,300,000).

Respectfully yours,
LESLIE COMBS, Special Agent.
Attorney General's Office,
PHILADELPHIA, 22d, 14th, 3.

His Excellency ROBERT L. LETCHER, Governor of Ky. Dear Sir: I have had the honor to receive, by the hands of General Combs, the copies of the statutes of Kentucky, authorizing the Bank of Kentucky to assume the Spanish debt, through the intervention of an agent of the State, and also of the resolutions of the Legislature of Kentucky, in pursuance of those statutes. I have also had the honor to receive your letter, together with a copy of the report of the President of the Bank of Kentucky, for the purpose of enabling him to return to Kentucky to give evidence, or to make explanations and disclosures relative to the issue of the said Spanish debt, which was done through the intervention of the said agent, and in pursuance of the said resolutions.

It is said that Mr. Dorr offered one of the marshals of his procession any place in the gift of the State, if he would lead the attack on the Arsenal. He declined. Why does not Mr. Dorr lead the attack himself?
